IT IS FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:<sup>3</sup>

A. The Court has jurisdiction to consider the Motion and the relief requested therein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Consideration of the Motion and the requested relief is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

B. The notice given by the Debtors of the Motion and the hearing with respect to the Motion constitutes proper, timely, adequate, and sufficient notice thereof and complies with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and applicable local rules, and no other or further notice is necessary under the circumstances.

C. The relief sought in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, creditors, and all parties in interest, and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein.

<sup>3</sup> Findings of fact shall be construed as conclusions of law, and conclusions of law shall be construed as findings of fact, pursuant to Rule 7052 of the Bankruptcy Rules.

D. The Rights Offering Procedures and Rights Offering Materials provide sufficient information to enable each eligible holder of Allowed FLTL Claims and Allowed SLTL Claims to duly participate in the Rights Offerings, as applicable.

E. The Subscription Period is a reasonable period of time for the eligible holders of Allowed FLTL Claims and Allowed SLTL Claims to make an informed decision regarding whether to exercise their Subscription Rights.

F. The terms and conditions of the Backstop Agreements are fair, reasonable, and the best available to the Debtors under the circumstances, and the Debtors' entry into the Backstop Agreements is a prudent exercise of business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties, is based on good, sufficient, and sound business purposes and justifications, and is supported by reasonably equivalent value and consideration. The Backstop Agreements were extensively negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtors, the Backstop Parties, and their respective professional advisors.

G. Each of the fees, premiums, and expenses provided for or permitted by the Backstop Agreements (including the Backstop Commitment Premiums, Indemnification Obligations and Transaction Expenses) is reasonable and warranted on the terms set forth in the Backstop Agreements in light of, among other things, (i) the significant benefit to the Debtors' estates of having definitive and binding equity commitments to help fund the Debtors' obligations under the Plan and (ii) the substantial time, effort, and costs incurred by the Backstop Parties in negotiating and documenting the Backstop Agreements.

H. The amount and terms and conditions of each of the fees, premiums, and expenses provided for or permitted by the Backstop Agreements (including the Backstop Commitment Premiums, Indemnification Obligations and Transaction Expenses) are bargainedfor and integral parts of the consideration exchanged under the Backstop Agreements and, without such inducements, the Backstop Parties would not have agreed to the terms and conditions of the Backstop Agreements. Accordingly, the foregoing transactions are reasonable and enhance the value of the Debtors' estates.

I. The entry into the Backstop Agreements by the parties thereto, and the performance and fulfillment of their respective obligations thereunder, do not constitute the solicitation of a vote on a chapter 11 plan and comply with the Bankruptcy Code and any and all other applicable statutes, laws, regulations, or orders.

J. All parties in interest have been afforded a reasonable opportunity to object and be heard with respect to the Motion and the Backstop Agreements and all of the relief granted herein.

K. The Backstop Agreements and all accompanying relief requested in the Motion serve to maximize estate value for the benefit of all the Debtors' stakeholders and parties in interest, and are otherwise in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, creditors, and all parties in interest and the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein.
